Join the Challenge

We are also challenging each runner to sell 10 butterflies to honor anyone living with cancer, survivors of cancer or family and friends who have passed away from this disease. The butterflies will be displayed along the course as well as at the start/finish of the race. Each runner who sells 10 butterflies will get his/her name in a drawing. The more butterflies we sell, the greater the gift we can pass on to those families currently challenged by this disease!!!

People who are not running in the race may also purchase butterflies to honor friends and family. Simply fill out the form on the next page and mail.
